Steve,

Last evening my wife Melissa and I attend this event as complimentary guests of the host Foundation (The Harold E. Eisenberg Foundation). Attached is an email chain of my further communications with you on this event and it includes my coordination with DPD Commissioner David Reifman and the invitation to attend from the Foundation. I attended in my capacity as Acting Zoning Administrator of the City of Chicago and that is reflected in the email from the Foundation's Executive Director (Katie Wales). If you need further information for your files please let me know, thank you.

Hello Mr. Murphey,

The Harold E. Eisenberg Foundation would like to invite you and your wife, Melissa, to our annual dinner on October 16, 2018. The event details can be found on the attached invitation. Your tickets would be complimentary as you are invited in your official capacity with the City of Chicago as the Acting Zoning Administrator. No costs associated with your (and your wife's) attendance would be paid by any private individual or private organization but would be compliments of the Foundation.

The Harold E. Eisenberg Foundation is committed to embracing life's challenges through gastrointestinal cancer research and education. Additionally, the Foundation has been committed to catapulting the career paths of aspiring real estate students through hands-on, real-world education opportunities including mentorships, scholarships, the Real Estate Scholars Program, Career Day, Speaker Series, the Real Estate Challenge, and more.

Attached, please find an event invitation and this note on our letterhead.

We hope you will join us and hundreds of real estate professionals as we celebrate our 20th year anniversary! Please let us know.

Sincerely,
Katie Wales
